Since the property listed below is either obsolete or would be too costly to repair and takes up valuable storage space, it is advisable that it be disposed of through public auction or disposal for scrap if it cannot be sold.

Los Angeles County Plan for Expelled Pupils (Education Code Section 48926)

Introduction

The Los Angeles County Superintendent of Schools, in conjunction with the superintendents of the school districts within the county, have developed the following county-wide plan for providing educational services to expelled pupils within the county pursuant to California Education Code, Section 48926. In addressing the needs of all expelled pupils, the countywide plan shall:

- enumerate existing educational alternatives for expelled pupils;
- identify gaps in educational services to expelled pupils;
- identify strategies for filling those gaps in services; and,
- identify alternative placements for pupils who are expelled and placed in district community day school programs, but who fail to meet the terms and conditions of their required rehabilitation plan or who pose a danger to other district pupils, as determined by the governing board.

Section 48916.1 provides that at the time an expulsion of a pupil is ordered, the governing board shall ensure that an education program is provided to the pupil who is subject to the expulsion order for the period of the expulsion. Any educational program provided pursuant to this section may be operated by the school district, the county superintendent of schools, or a consortium of districts or in joint agreement with the county superintendent of schools.

To address the needs of expelled pupils, a number of alternative education programs have been developed by local school districts and the Los Angeles County Office of Education to provide continuing educational opportunities.

Profile

The Los Angeles County Office of Education (LACOE) is the nation's largest regional education agency. Los Angeles County, the most populous county in the nation, has over 10 million residents, including about 1.6 million students in 80 public school districts. Our largest district, Los Angeles Unified School District, has an enrollment of 659,639 students, while our smallest, Gorman School District, has 100 students. Our countywide service area encompasses 88 cities and 4,084 square miles.

LACOE Vision Statement

LACOE is a premier provider of integrated, educational programs and services from birth to adulthood in a richly diverse and multicultural global environment.

LACOE uses a variety of service delivery systems to eliminate the educational barriers associated with poverty and racial divisiveness in education, enabling students to exceed state and national standards. These services include universal, quality, early childhood education, effective data driven programs for all students, and state of the art technical assistance.

LACOE organizes its infrastructure to provide leadership in creating unique, nationally recognized models in education, including models for innovative staff development and training. LACOE earns the public's confidence by: making the school the hub of the community, making the most efficient use of financial resources, bridging the "digital divide" in technology access and content, and developing collaborative partnerships for students, parents, and community. LACOE embraces a culture of diversity that promotes an inclusive, prosperous learning and workplace environment.

Division of Student Programs

The Division of Student Programs (DSP) serves approximately 3,400 students throughout Los Angeles County. DSP provides instructional and educational services in a variety of settings, including 3 juvenile hall schools, 13 camp schools, 2 residential Community Education Centers, 3 Cal-SAFE programs, 13 County Community Schools, 8 independent study programs, and 2 specialized high schools. All school sites offer a Common Core curriculum and a variety of supplemental services intended to address the learning needs of individual students. Additionally, school personnel work closely with the Probation Department and the Department of Mental Health to provide comprehensive educational services for all students. The mission of the Division of Student Programs is to ensure student success by providing quality academic programs, supported by an organizational culture that is focused on data and Professional Learning Communities. DSP is responsible for the placement and services of all expelled students who are referred to LACOE.

Division of Pupil Services

The Division of Pupil Services (DPS) supports the Principal Administrative Units (PAUs) in the Division of Student Programs and the Division of Special Education with the implementation of programs and initiatives to facilitate the academic, emotional, mental, social, and physical health of all students. This support is provided through professional development and the collaborative efforts of staff members in the Camps Assessment Unit, Compliance Support Services, Health Services, Neglected/Delinquent and Homeless youth services, as well as Counseling, Nursing and Aftercare Services. The mission of the Division of Pupil Services is to meet the academic, social, emotional, and physical needs of the students we serve in Educational Programs.

Division of Student Support Services

The Division of Student Support Services (SSS) serves school districts and LACOE programs, and provides technical assistance in the areas of student discipline, pupil records, custody of minors, education for homeless children and youth, compulsory attendance, counseling and guidance, health services, gang prevention and intervention, safe school planning, emergency response and crisis intervention, foster youth services, substance use prevention, and after-school programs. SSS is responsible for handling expulsion appeals to the county board of education of students expelled from the school districts, and providing support for students, parents, and school districts who are participating in the expulsion appeal process.

Educational Alternatives for Expelled Pupils

School districts located within Los Angeles County provide a number of options for expelled pupils, depending on the specific violation of Sections 48900, 48900.2, 48900.3, 48900.4 and 48900.7 of the California Education Code. The alternative education program to which an expelled pupil may be assigned is preceded by a decision of the local governing board which may provide for one of the following expulsion orders which describes the students' educational placement:

1. Suspended enforcement of the expulsion order with placement on the same school campus [EC § 48917 (a)];
2. Suspended enforcement of the expulsion order with placement on a different school campus within the district or a district alternative program such as school or continuation high school programs [EC § 48917(a)];
3. Expulsion with a referral to a District Community Day School program, if available [EC § 48660]; or,
4. Expulsion with a referral to a county community school or other appropriate programs operated by the Los Angeles County Office of Education [EC § 1981(c)].

A pupil who is expelled for violation for an act listed in subdivision (c) of EC § 48915 (mandatory expulsion section), shall be assigned to a program of study that meets all of the following conditions:

- (1) Is appropriately prepared to accommodate pupils who exhibit discipline problems.
- (2) Is not provided at a comprehensive middle, junior, or senior high school, or at any elementary school.
- (3) Is not housed at the school site attended by the pupil at the time of suspension.

At the time an expulsion of a pupil is ordered, the governing board of the school district shall ensure that an educational program is provided to the pupil who is subject to the expulsion order for the period of the expulsion. Any education program provided may be operated by the school district, the county superintendent of schools, or a consortium of districts or in joint agreement with the county superintendent of schools.

District Operated Programs

The range of alternative programs currently offered by school districts throughout Los Angeles County includes the following options:

- Community Day Schools;
- Independent Study (offered in conjunction with a classroom option);
- Opportunity School/Class;
- Continuation High School;
- Charter School;
- Adult Education Programs; and,
- Special Education.

If a school district is unable to provide a suitable program or if the expelled pupil fails to meet the terms and conditions of his or her rehabilitation plan or if the student continues to pose a danger to other district pupils, as determined by the governing board, the district may refer the expelled pupil to the Los Angeles County Office of Education for possible placement in a program operated by the Division of Student Programs (DSP).

County Operated Programs

The Los Angeles County Office of Education currently provides a variety of alternative education programs that are designed to help pupils:

- take a renewed interest in school and learning;
- attend school consistently; and,
- set and attain academic and career goals.

Specifically, these programs are designed to serve:

- Students who are having trouble at home or school;
- Expecting and Parenting Teens;
- Homeless and Foster Children and Youth;
- Students who are on probation or students who need to work full-time to support themselves and/or their families; and,
- Students who have been expelled and for whom a district operated education program is not available.

Programs designed to serve the above identified pupil populations include those operated by the LACOE Division of Student Programs (DSP) include:

- County Community Schools;
- Independent Study (operated in conjunction with a classroom option);
- California School Age Families Education Program;
- Partnership Programs

As previously stated, at the time an expulsion of a pupil is ordered, the governing board of the school district shall ensure that an educational program is provided for the pupil subject to the expulsion order. For districts that may be unable to provide pupils who commit serious behavior violations with an alternative program that meets the restrictive requirements of California Education Code Section 48915 (d) (see appendix), selected county programs may provide viable options.

It is anticipated that the majority of expelled pupils who are referred to the county office for placement in an alternative program will be assigned to a county community school program. County Community schools operated by the county are designed to provide interventions for middle school and high school students, grades 6 to 12.

Educational Service Gaps and Strategies to Address Service Gaps

Section 48926 of the California Education Code provides that each county superintendent of schools in counties that operate community schools pursuant to Section 1980: ... shall develop a plan for providing education services to all expelled pupils in that county. One of the required elements of the plan is to identify gaps in educational services to expelled pupils, and strategies for filling those service gaps.

To address this element and identify additional service needs to expelled pupils, a survey of all school districts in Los Angeles County was conducted (see appendix: AB 922 District Questionnaire).

As a result of that survey, the following service gaps were identified, including a discussion of each issue along with a proposed strategy:

Service Gap 1 – Lack of Behavior Interventions for Expelled Students

Discussion: Eight school districts expressed a need for more behavior interventions such as counseling or tutoring. Three districts found that placements were limited for Special Education students who were expelled.

Proposed Strategy: The Division of Student Support Services began formal training for school districts and LACOE schools in Positive Behavior Interventions & Support (PBIS), a school-wide discipline framework that helps to reduce suspensions and expulsions. The framework assists school districts in identifying strategies to reduce the number of discipline issues, but also promotes a positive school climate. Included in the framework are Restorative Justice practices, a strategy that creates opportunities for victims, offenders and others to discuss the offense and develop resolutions. Counseling programs that included therapeutic counseling, attendance interventions, drug education, mental health interventions, behavior interventions that include parent education for ADD/ADHD, bipolar syndrome, and the use of medications, group counseling strategies, and the utilization of social work interns have proven helpful to school districts.

Seven school districts operate Alternative Education centers that include counseling, credit recovery, mentoring, job training, Career Technical Education courses such as fashion design and auto mechanics, foreign language courses, and community college courses.

The Los Angeles Unified School District employs AB 922 Counselors who ensure the appropriate educational placement of expelled students, provide case management, monitor social behavior and academic progress, and consult and collaborate with school staff and community agencies.

Service Gap 2 – Transportation to Alternative Placement Settings for Expelled Students

Discussion: Six school districts felt that transportation to alternative programs was an obstacle for students that have been expelled. One school district, located in a rural area, did not have any alternative education placements in the immediate area.

Proposed Strategy: Ten school districts believe LACOE could consider creating more alternative options for students in grades K-5 and 6-8 address transportation issues. Another strategy was to offer online, blended courses (a combination of online and traditional instruction) as an alternative placement for expelled students.

Alternative Placements for Pupils who Fail to Meet the Terms and Conditions of their Rehabilitation Plan or who Pose a Danger to Others

California Education Code, Section 48926 requires the county-wide plan to further identify alternative placements for pupils who are expelled and placed in district community day school programs, but who fail to meet the terms and conditions of their rehabilitation plan or who pose a danger to other district pupils, as determined by the governing board.

In Los Angeles County, expelled pupils who are unsuccessful in a district operated community day school and/or who fail to meet the terms and conditions of their rehabilitation plan or who pose a danger to other district pupils may be referred to a county community school or other appropriate alternative program operated by the county office of education.

Options for students who fail to meet the terms and conditions of their rehabilitation plan may, in select cases, include referral and placement in a juvenile hall setting or juvenile camp or in select cases, a transfer to a program operated by an adjacent county office of education.

Currently, the Los Angeles County Office of Education does not have any formal agreements with adjacent county offices of education.

Contract for Alternative Services

To further address the requirements of Section 48926 of the California Education Code, and to ensure that an educational program is provided for all expelled pupils, referred to and accepted by the County, the Division of Student Programs (DSP) will enter into a contract with each participating school district to identify agreed-to responsibilities for serving expelled pupils, including those served in both regular and special education programs. A plan to address any identified service gaps will be included in the contract.

(c) Any educational program provided pursuant to subdivision (b) shall not be situated within or on the grounds of the school from which the pupil was expelled.

(d) If the pupil who is subject to the expulsion order was expelled from any of kindergarten or grades 1 to 6, inclusive, the educational program provided pursuant to subdivision (b) shall not be combined or merged with educational programs offered to pupils in any of grades 7 to 12, inclusive. The district or county program is the only program required to be provided to expelled pupils as determined by the governing board of the school district. The subdivision, as it relates to the separation of pupils by grade levels does not apply to community day schools offering instruction in any of the kindergarten and grades 1 to 8 inclusive, and established in accordance with Section 48660.

(e) (1) Each school district shall maintain the following data:

(A) The number of pupils recommended for expulsion.

(B) The grounds for each recommended expulsion.

(C) Whether the pupil was subsequently expelled.

(D) Whether the expulsion order was suspended.

(E) The type of referral made after the expulsion.

(F) The disposition of the pupil after the end of the period of expulsion.

(2) The Superintendent may require a school district to report this data as part of the coordinated compliance review. If a school district does not report outcome data as required by this subdivision, the Superintendent may not apportion any further money to the school district pursuant to Section 48664 until the school district is in compliance with this subdivision. Before withholding the apportionment of funds to a school district pursuant to this subdivision, the Superintendent shall give written notice to the governing board of the school district that the school district has failed to report the data required by paragraph (1) and that the school district has 30 calendar days from the date of the written notice of noncompliance to report the requested data and thereby avoid the withholding of the apportionment of funds.

(f) If the county superintendent of schools is unable for any reason to serve the expelled pupils of a school district within the county, the governing board of that school district may enter into an agreement with a county superintendent of schools in another county to provide education services for the district's expelled pupils.

California Education Code
Section 48926

Each county superintendent of schools in counties that operate community schools pursuant to Section 1980, in conjunction with superintendents of the school districts within the county, shall develop a plan for providing education services to all expelled pupils in that county. The plan shall be adopted by the governing board of each school district within the county and by the county board of education.

The plan shall enumerate existing educational alternatives for expelled pupils, identify gaps in educational services to expelled pupils, and strategies for filling those service gaps. The plan shall also identify alternative placements for pupils who are expelled and placed in district community day school programs, but who fail to meet the terms and conditions of their rehabilitation plan or who pose a danger to other district pupils, as determined by the governing board.

Each county superintendent of schools, in conjunction with the superintendents of the school districts, shall submit to the Superintendent of Public Instruction the county plan for providing educational services to all expelled pupils in the county no later than June 30, 1997, and shall submit a triennial update to the plan to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, including the outcome data pursuant to Section 48916.1, on June 30th thereafter.

COUNTYWIDE PLAN FOR PROVISION OF EDUCATIONAL SERVICES TO EXPELLED
STUDENTS
QUESTIONNAIRE – SUMMARY OF DATA
March 23, 2015

Introduction

The survey was provided to all school district superintendents, many of whom delegated completion of the survey to the director of student support services, supervisor of child welfare and attendance, and director of alternative education of each of the districts. Of the 80 districts receiving the survey, 72 completed the survey.

Suspended enforcement of the expulsion It should be noted that in order to facilitate the participation of an expelled student in programs located within the school district, school districts are required to suspend the enforcement of the expulsion order. However, the student is expected to comply with all stipulations of the expulsion order related to behavior, attendance, and participation in rehabilitation programs such as counseling. Failure to comply with the expulsion order stipulations could trigger a full expulsion and removal from the district's program. A referral to a LACOE County Community School or a Charter school would be an alternative placement for such students.

Current Educational Alternatives Available

Community Day Schools

Districts use both their own community day school (CDS) and LACOE County Community School (CCS) programs as placements for expelled students. District CDS programs cannot be located on or adjacent to a K-12 educational program.

- Twenty four out of eighty districts reported that they operate a district CDS, four for grades K-5, twenty four for grades 6-8, and twenty three for grades 9-12. Some of the schools used frequently by districts are noted, with the number of districts in parentheses: Whittier Area CDS (3), East San Gabriel Valley ROP (4), El Monte Union CDS (2) and Gene Drevno CDS, Torrance USD (2). Los Angeles USD has its own Elementary CDS and Secondary CDS school programs. There are a total of 35 CDS schools according to the California Department of Education (CDE).
- The following LACOE CCS programs are used by districts (number of times reported by each district in parentheses): Bermudez (3), Jonas Salk (9), Hollywood Media Arts Academy (2), Mujeres y Hombres Nobles (2), Willows Academy, Sheriff's Leadership Academy, Downey, Tri-Community, Norwalk/La Mirada Visions
- Other Programs used by districts: Eggleston Youth Center a licensed nonprofit (2), SEA Charter School (2), Gateway County Community School (Ventura County), ACCESS County Community School (Orange County)

Opportunity Programs

Some districts operate opportunity programs, minimum day programs housed on K-12 sites, as an alternative for expelled students.

- District Opportunity Programs: Grades K-5 (3), 6-8 (12), 9-12 (14) = 29 responses
- Two districts use the Opportunities for Learning Charter School

Continuation High Schools

Continuation high schools were used by ten districts for expelled students.

Charter Schools

The following districts use charter schools as placement for expelled students.

- Grade K-5 (5), 6-8 (11), 9-12 (15). The most frequently used schools were Opportunities for Learning (7), SEA Charter School (2), and district dependent charter schools (2). One district noted that expelled students “self-referred” to the charter schools.

Independent Study Programs

Districts that did not have any other alternative programs referred students to their own independent study program, or could use a LACOE independent study program.

- LACOE Independent Study (IS): Although districts did not indicate they use LACOE IS programs for expelled students, they do refer students to the following County Community School programs: Bermudez, Jonas Salk, Hollywood Media Arts Academy, Mujeres y Hombres Nobles, Willows Academy, Sheriff’s Leadership Academy, Downey, Tri-Community, Norwalk/La Mirada Visions.
- District Independent Study (IS): Grades K-5 (22 districts), 6-8 (22 districts), 9-12 (27 districts). Although these programs are available as an alternative, one district noted that they rarely use IS as an alternative for suspension or expulsion. One district uses short-term IS. The programs most frequently used were City of the Angels, which serves multiple sites in LAUSD, Educational Partnership High School serving the Long Beach USD schools, and two charter school programs, Opportunities for Learning and Options for Youth. Four districts house their independent study programs at a comprehensive high school or continuation high school site.

Other Alternative Programs

Districts also included the following as alternatives for expelled students:

- District Home Schooling Program for grades 6-8
- Inter district transfer to a neighboring school district
- Intra district transfer to another school within the same school district
- In-school suspensions for grades 2-8
- District Home Teaching for grades K-12
- Adult School
- Special Education programs for students served by an IEP

Have these strategies/services been successful? If not, what were the obstacles or gaps?

Thirty nine of the districts surveyed felt that the available alternative programs were successful most of the time.

- Eight school districts did not have any expulsions during the past school. One district has not had an expulsion in ten years.
- Lack of behavior interventions and transportation were the service gaps most frequently mentioned by the school districts that completed the survey.

Comments on Service Gap No. 1 – Lack of Behavior Interventions for Expelled Students

Eight districts expressed a need for more behavior interventions such as counseling or tutoring. Three districts found that placements were limited for Special Education students.

Comments on Service Gap No. 2 – Transportation to Alternative Placement Programs for Expelled Students

Six school districts felt that transportation to alternative programs was an obstacle for students that have been expelled. One school district, located in a rural area, did not have any alternative education placements in the immediate area.

Suggestions or strategies for filling any service gaps which limit the ability to ensure the availability of educational services for expelled students

Thirty nine school districts were satisfied with their alternative program options, and did not have any suggestions. The following are suggestions or best practices that were shared by school district personnel

- Restorative Justice practices (six districts) This strategy creates opportunities for victims, offenders and others to discuss the offense and develop resolutions
- Positive Behavior Interventions & Support (PBIS) is a school-wide discipline framework that helps to reduce suspensions and expulsions (three districts)
- Counseling programs that included therapeutic counseling, attendance interventions, drug education, mental health interventions, group counseling strategies, and social work interns (seven districts)
- Smaller schools and smaller class sizes in alternative placement settings allow for a more supportive environment for expelled students (three districts)
- Alternative Education centers that include counseling, credit recovery, mentoring, job training, Career Technical Education: fashion design, auto mechanics, foreign language courses, community college courses (seven districts)
- AB 922 Counselors in Los Angeles USD ensure appropriate placement, provide case management, monitor social behavior and academic progress, and consult and collaborate with school staff and community agencies.
- Due to limited options, some school districts consider not expelling the student.
- LACOE could consider creating more alternative options for students in grades K-5 and 6-8 (ten districts) to address transportation issues.
- In considering behavior interventions, include parent education for ADD/ADHD, bipolar syndrome, and the use of medications (two districts)
- Offer online, blended courses (a combination of online and traditional instruction) as an alternative placement for expelled students

Alternative placements for students who fail to meet the terms and conditions of the expulsion rehabilitation plan or pose a danger to other district students as determined by the governing board

- Eleven districts refer students to LACOE programs
- Seven districts refer students to other community day schools in adjacent school districts
- Three districts continue to enforce the expulsion order until the student meets all terms and conditions
- Six districts refer students to independent study
- Three districts refer students to charter school programs: SEA or Opportunities for Learning
- Four districts transfer the student to another school within their school district, or to a neighboring school district
- Four districts have not had students who failed to complete their rehabilitation plan

What are your best practices, at the site and district levels, of behavioral intervention approaches and options used to minimize the number of suspensions leading to expulsions, of expulsions being ordered, and to support students returning from expulsions?

The following are best practices that were shared by the school districts that have minimized the number of suspensions and expulsions, in keeping with EC 48900.5, Other Means of Correction, which encourages alternatives to suspension and expulsion:

- Positive Behavior Interventions & Support (PBIS) is a school-wide discipline framework that helps to reduce suspensions and expulsions, and is being utilized by many school districts (twenty one districts). The Division of Student Support Services, in the 2014-2015 school year, began PBIS training and services to 200 district schools and LACOE's Christa McAuliffe PAU.
- Counseling, including grade level counseling (ten districts)
- Restorative Justice practices (six districts)
- Student Study Team and administrative team meetings (six districts)
- Parent conferences and student and parent empowerment nights (five districts)
- Response to Intervention, or RTI (five districts) a multi-tier approach to the early identification and support of students with learning and behavior needs
- Alternatives to suspension: detention, in-house suspension, Saturday School (five districts)
- Mental health referrals to outside counseling or mental health agencies (four districts)
- Character Education, Capturing Kids Hearts, Peace Builders (five districts)
- School Attendance Review Board process (three districts)
- Positive Recognition and Incentive Programs, Spirit Points (three districts)
- After School Programs (two districts)
- Community Service, campus beautification (two districts)

In particular, how do these best practices relate to any disproportionate representation of student subgroups in such interventions?

Fourteen districts believe they do not have a disproportionate representation in the number of students being suspended or expelled among their subgroups. Four districts were unaware of the data, and five districts plan to begin to analyze the data this year.

- Positive Behavior Interventions & Support (PBIS) was mentioned by five districts as a practice that teaches appropriate behavior and instills high expectations in all students and staff.
- Ten districts stated that all support services are equally available to all subgroups, including Special Education students, African American students, Latino students, and Asian and Pacific Islander students. Advisory and Support and Mentoring groups exist in three districts for these subgroups. Consideration is given to potential differences in culture, language, gender, disability and other differences.
- Six districts found that counseling serves to minimize suspensions.
